

In putting this list together I felt I had various demands to satisfy. Firstly a wide range of styles and flavours to suit all palates. Secondly a variety of acidity, tannins and structures to complement the diverse dishes on offer.

In the end I decided that the overriding factor had to be the passion shared for wines by you and of course myself. Consequently in compiling this offering I included only those wines which brought me a grin of pleasure upon consumption.

Therefore in close consultation with my wine shipper I have listed wines which appeal to differing palates and wallets, but which without exception are excellent examples of wines of their type and origin.

Furthermore like a good wine which evolves over the years so will this list. As new wines of the highest quality are discovered the world over they will surely find a place with us.

This just leaves me wishing you pleasurable, oenological intercourse with us at the Brasserie at The Wild Boar.
